Message by Dr. Middendorf

Dr. Jesse Middendorf
General Superintendent

Dr. Jesse Middendorf was chosen for the highest elected office in the church at the 25th General Assembly at Indianapolis, Indiana, in June 2001.

He was born in Nashville, Tennessee, and has been preaching since age 16. He received his B.A. from Trevecca Nazarene University in 1965, his

M.Div. from Nazarene Theological Seminary in 1968, and a D.Min. from Nazarene Theological Seminary in 1999.

Dr. Middendorf pastored Nazarene churches in Clarksville, TN; Ashland, KY; Albuquerque, NM; Richardson, TX; Kansas City, MO; and was superintendent of the Northwest Oklahoma District Church of the Nazarene.

He has written numerous articles and has authored chapters in several books, including The Handbook of Christian Ritual published in 1997.

He and his wife, Susan (nee Marlowe), have three children: Jon, Marlo, and Jim; and four grandchildren.

The Fraleys are global missionaries with the Church of the Nazarene, assigned to France.

They have served on the France field since the beginning of their missionary service in 1979 and were one of the pioneer missionary couples who opened the work of the Church of the Nazarene in that country. They are presently living in Paris, France, where Dave is serving as D.S. of the France District of the Church of the Nazarene. He is also the principal teacher for the Paris Learning Center (a branch of European Nazarene College). Carolita, along with her ministry of hospitality, is directing the training of Sunday School workers for the District.
